If it cannot be met then push the date back. ● Each group presented what points they came up with. ● Having a way for parents to update information - possibly google form. And maybe having parents fill that out during conferences.
Events Update (Oct. Dec.)	Morris	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Finishing Hispanic Heritage Month with parade; classes will represent one country, chosen via SignUp Genius; two different parades - K-3 (1-1:15) and 4-8 (1:15-1:30); staff will have a Taco Bar on Tuesday Oct. 15. ● Oct. 14-25 - Grade level spelling bees to choose representatives for December School-Wide Spelling Bee ● Oct. 16 - Pinkout for Breast Cancer ● Fire Prevention (for K-2) has been rescheduled)

- Oct. 21-25 - Red Ribbon Week - Ambassadors will be creating content about bullying vs. conflict
- Oct. 25 - Awards Day - will be virtual for this quarter with having construction still finishing up.
- Oct. 25 - Fall Festival (4:30-6:30); will be different from last year - students will come back with their families after leaving school; no money will be collected this time around, families will pay for their own food from food trucks; it is NOT A DROP AND PLAY EVENT, guardians will stay with their students
- November character trait of the month - Gratitude
- Nov. 1 - Kid's Voting - Watson came in to talk about details; tech lab will be set up to look like polling place with ballot booths, PTSO will volunteer as poll workers, kids will get sticker after voting; we will include president, VP, and for local voting we will have governor, state school superintendent, and Student Government Association (SGA) for 7/8th grade. SGA will do campaign videos. Teachers will introduce the event in the mornings before announcements. Teachers will do a SignUp Genius to figure out what time to bring their class to vote.
- 1st quarter incentive - Williams will send out info, teachers will decide which students will attend (with documentation to justify decision); next quarter incentive will be tied to "bucks"
- Nov. 4 - Kid's Voting Results to be announced
