Mrs. Robinson will remind us of our “assigned” indicators to monitor or close out. B1.03 - Status states that this objective has been met. We viewed and modify evidence for the Objective Status: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The leadership team is a representation of each grade level, department, and PTSO members within the school. The grade level chairs take information back to the prospective team members. Minutes are provided not just for staff, but also approved and accessible for public knowledge and community stakeholders. All stakeholders have an opportunity to voice concerns and respond back with can write back with questions or concerns for clarifications. 2. Leadership has meetings pre-scheduled throughout the year. Open leadership and community dialogue is offered and collaboration is key. 3. Evidence: Calendar, approved leadership minutes, agenda, sign in sheets, invites and reminders, website links D1.02 - Status states that the school budget is created, vetted, shared, and revised based on instructional priorities. Our budget is reconciled in November and the updated budget will be provided at the December meeting. We will not close out this action plan, but we are monitoring it.
